for

CONGRESS

"I am a successful Wall Street investor who entered politics as what I am, an activist and a contrarian. In Congress, I will effectively, without fail, reverse the certification of the 2022 electoral votes and lead the Republican Party in dealing with the federal judicial corruption that has ruined our Constitution and economy."

OPEN LETTER TO FORMER FEDERAL JUDGE J. MICHAEL LUTTIG

February 24, 2022

Dear Judge J. Michael Luttig:

Our Constitution, President Donald J. Trump, and coincidentally, my precious innocent daughter, Eva Asensio, are victims of organized deliberate and malicious federal judicial misconduct. President Trump is yet to become aware of it. My greatest hope is that you join me and my campaign to end it.

According to you, William P. Barr, and Richard Cullen, Vice President Mike Pence resolved the certification matter. Mr. Pence is an executive. The three of you are lawyers. According to President Trump, his lawyers and his political ideology, Mr. Pence betrayed the Constitution and law, and the principles set forth by Founding Fathers, their generation, the first and second Continental Congresses, the Declaration of Independence, and the Federalist Papers.

Thus, Mr. Pence is either an innocent victim of your conflict of interest in favor of the federal judges or a traitor. In fact, deliberate and malicious federal judicial misconduct in the election and towards the office of the presidency is the highest fraud element that Mr. Pence has a duty to resolve.

Now it is time for you, Mr. Barr, and Mr. Cullen to act with patriotic courage like the patriots at the Boston Tea Party, the Battles of Lexington, Concord, Bunker Hill, and Yorktown, the winter at Valley Forge, and the Barrage on Ft. McHenry, and the Civil and World Wars, so that the three of you can speak the truth of what you have done to our Democracy.

I equate your tweet to Mr. Pence to the anonymous summon to an unsanctioned assembly of mutinous army officers at Newburg, New York during the Revolutionary War. I pray that you summon the effectiveness of General George Washington on the morning of March 15, 1783 when he put down the Newburg rebellion and speak truth to Mr. Barr (who you say you spoke to "seemingly" every day throughout the entire Trump administration) and Mr. Cullen (who you call one of your closest friends in all of life), and Mr. Pence who you misled with your political nonsense and legal absurdities. Now you must put aside all foolishness and simply tell Mr. Pence that you and your tweet were wrong.

God Bless you and God Bless America.

Sincerely,

Manuel P. Asensio

STATEMENT OF MANUEL P. ASENSIO, A REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE AT CPAC 2022, ON VICE PRESIDENT MIKE PENCE'S FABRICATION OF AN ELABORATE SCHEME AS JUSTIFICATION FOR HIS DISLOYAL AND TREASONOUS DECISION TO CERTIFY THE 2020 ELECTORAL VOTES

February 24, 2022

In a story published by Politico on February 18, 2022, titled, "The Never Before Told Backstory of Pence's January 6th Argument," a former federal judge, J. Michael Luttig, reveals how Vice President Mike Pence's outside counsel, Richard Cullen, desperately called him at 6:45 a.m. on January 5, 2021. Mr. Cullen called Judge Luttig unexpectedly to get him to write something to put into Mr. Pence's letter to Congress so Mr. Pence could justify his unnecessary and wrongheaded decision to certify the electoral votes in the 2020 presidential election.

At 9:53 a.m. on January 5, 2021, Judge Luttig, who had been retired for 15 years, posted seven tweets on the social media platform Twitter. He did so without reason. The tweets show no authority. They are conclusionary statements made without reasoning or fact-finding, as if Judge Luttig had the right to issue commandments. Mr. Cullen simply incorporated the tweets into Mr. Pence's letter to Congress. Otherwise, the tweets would be unheard of and meaningless.

Mr. Pence could have naturally, honestly, and modestly—without any uncertainty—simply declined to certify the electoral votes, and Congress could have and would have resolved the controversy in a matter-of-fact manner as it did on January 29, 1877, without any complications.

Instead, Mr. Pence worked with Mr. Cullen, who in turn was working behind the scenes with Judge Luttig and former US Attorney General William P. Barr, to fabricate an elaborate scheme to take over the election without an iota of concern for the Constitution or loyalty to truth, the American people, the office of the American presidency, or its occupant.

Now is the time for Mr. Pence to summon the courage to tell the truth. Now is the time Mr. Pence must honor the Founding Generation and the courage of the Boston Tea Party and Massachusetts Rebellions; the Battles of Falmouth, Lexington, Concord, Bunker Hill, Yorktown, Brandywine, and Germantown; the winter at Valley Forge; and the Declaration of Independence.

I equate Mr. Pence's manipulations to the anonymous summon to an unsanctioned assembly of the mutinous army officers at Newburgh, New York, during the Revolutionary War. I pray that Mr. Pence acts with the effectiveness of General George Washington on the morning of March 15, 1783, when he put down the Newburgh rebellion; that he ceases using political nonsense and legal absurdities; and that he puts aside all foolishness and simply admits that "I, Vice President Mike Pence, withdraw my certification of the 2020 electoral votes because I was wrong."
