

Asensio Blasts Congresswoman Kat Cammack for Her Anti-Parenting Rights and Her Leftist Ideology; Demands She Take a Position on the Anti-Judicial Corruption Act of 2023

Kat Cammack Is Hiding from the Anti-Judicial Corruption Act to Avoid Political Suicide

GAINSVILLE, Fla.— April 22, 2022 — To end the Marxist “equality” indoctrination behind the assault on families and parents and behind the invasion of woke culture, critical race theory, and open borders in America, US Congressional candidate, Manuel P. Asensio has introduced legislation titled the Anti-Judicial Corruption Act of 2023 (H.R. 1). H.R. 1 corrects the mistakes the 96th Congress made in drafting the Judicial Conduct Act of 1980. These unintentional mistakes have broken our educational institutions, economy, and government.

“Kat Cammack’s two-faced political hogwash and voting record cannot hide her Anti-Freedom ideology. I have repeatedly demanded that Kat Cammack address my legislation that will end the Left’s stranglehold on America. Kat Cammack is stonewalling because the political establishment that controls her will not allow her to endorse H.R. 1, but opposing my law is political suicide,” Mr. Asensio said.

H.R.1 closes the loopholes that allows the federal judges to illegally expand their authority over natural and civil rights. This law would prohibit judges from deliberately violating rights and liberties that neither judges nor Congress have any right to govern — at all no matter what.

Mr. Asensio launched his smoking-gun campaign against Representative Kat Cammack’s unholy alliance with the Left. She is the opposite of a conservative. She was installed in Congress by the political establishment as part of a sexist political trick involving Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez. Now she has become a wannabe lifetime politician.

Kat Cammack has a history of lying to her constituents about being homeless and having run a successful business. Now she is stonewalling the Anti-Judicial Corruption Act and hiding her affiliation with the Left and the RINO Republican establishment. Cammack's ideology clashes with those of any conservative Republican.

Mr. Asensio stated: "Kat Cammack's politics are anti-natural rights, anti-family and parental rights, anti-separation of powers, anti-limits on government, anti-border security, anti-presumption of innocence, anti-equal protection, anti-due process, anti-neutral principles, and anti-separation of church and state, and this makes Kat Cammack's ideology anti-rule of law and undemocratic and unconstitutional. Like woke, Cammack's beliefs have no place in the United States Congress."

By tacitly opposing and covering up Asensio's groundbreaking legislation, Kat Cammack is violating her duty to the US Constitution and demonstrating her ideological opposition to its values, and the most basic conservative values.

Mr. Asensio is the founder of the Institute of Judicial Conduct (IJC), the nation's only independent authority on federal judiciary policy. He formed the IJC after discovering the mistakes the 96th Congress made in the Judicial Conduct Act and how the federal judges had used them to infringe on his natural and civil rights. As a result of federal judicial overreach, Mr. Asensio was not able to pass down his religious and political ideology and beliefs to his daughter, Eva Asensio. He vowed to end the federal government takeover of individual and family liberty and drafted H.R.1 to correct the mistakes the 96th Congress made in 1980.

Mr. Asensio stated, "The future of our nation depends on stopping the use of the federal judges to impose woke world views on American citizens. Federal judges who deliberately lie and act fraudulently in court betray our Founders, the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution. We must stop these judges from cheating everyday Americans, infringing on our rights, and destroying our economy. Kat Cammack cannot do it, so I must."

Learn more about Manuel P. Asensio and the background of the Anti-Judicial Corruption Act below.

Mr. Asensio is the founder of Asensio & Company LLC, the nation's first Wall Street firm dedicated to exposing stock fraud. Initially, the press dubbed him the "Most Hated Man on Wall Street," the "Demolition Man," and "Attila the Hun." Later, as the benefits of his work to the transparency in our capital market became well-known, he became officially recognized as the Pioneer of Informational Arbitrage."

Manuel authored the Wall Street classic "Sold Short: Uncovering Deception in the Markets. Sold Short chronicles Manuel's adventures battling Wall Street bankers and brokers, corporate executives, and the press who were either investing in or defending fraudulent stocks in the nation's securities marketplace while at the same time fighting off their protectors, FINRA, and SEC. All of this happened in the public arena under the watchful eyes of investors trying to separate the bad guys and gals from the good ones.
