Dear Congressman Jim Jordan,

I am short of time, and have devoted a great deal of time to you this week. And I am not a writer. So please pardon any errors. I need to get this to you immediately.

My education goes beyond what I studied at Wharton and Harvard, or learned my experiences on Wall Street where I was dubbed the Demolition Man and Attila Hun in the media before I was recognized as the Pioneer of Activist Short Selling. While I am a conservative Republican Cuban refugee who experienced the communist takeover of Cuba, Venezuela, and New York City. But these are not the reasons why I am writing you.

My motive is rooted in what I learned at home from my mother, Caridad Asensio, a member of Florida's Women Hall of Fame and father, and family, my Catholic parochial grammar school and high school in an Italian American neighborhood in Brooklyn, New York. This is what gave me the fortitude to expose lawlessly policymaking at the US Judicial Conference by the nation's 14 chief judges and to confront them. But my love for my God and my daughter, Eva Asensio, and America, is my true motive. My desire to pass down to my daughter my religious and political beliefs, my belief in my American liberty.

In fact, I am in line to obtain over a $100 million judgment from the federal government for having discovered how, why, and where government is lawlessly coercing Americans. And doing so as agents of corrupt politicians who use WOKE ideologies to make judgments in federal court. I am demanding the $100 million in the nation's first criminal indifference to civil rights action, which is pending before the federal government at the US Judicial Conference, Congress, and the Department of Justice, actually with the Office of the American Presidency. But this is not really my motivation. I am a phenomenally successful investment professional and due to what I call ZIRP, Zero Interest Rate Policies, $100 million on Wall Street is not an impossibly high figure to make in a year. I started on this quest since 2016.

I am petitioning Republicans in FL-3 to get Kat Cammack to face me and address the issues that I have brought to the Republican Party and into FL-3. I know Kat only says what Kevin McCarthy allows her to say and does only what Kevin permits, after all they are partners in the AOC "f—cking B-tch" swindle. Do you really want to be associated with Kat and her shameless AOC-WOKE fraud?

Once you review the Resolution you will see the severity of the decision you have made to stand beside Kat at the Take Back America Rally on Saturday in FL-30. Association with Kat puts you in a dangerous position of aligning yourself with Kat's dishonest and deceitful politics. I ask you once more, can your scheduler Emma Summers please arrange a meeting between you and I before the Take Back America Rally this Saturday? I have nothing but respect for you and simply wish to discuss these matters.

Sincerely,

Manuel P. Asensio
